

SOCIETY VIEWS

banquet given by the Society of the Revolution of West Virginia, on Monday evening, at the Waldos, the handsomest functions in the city. The Clarksburg was stationed in the balcony of the beautiful dining room at nine o'clock the doors were open and the guests had a patriotic strains of "White and Blue." The menu of the society, led by Governor Rev. James F. Plummer, rector of Protestant Episcopal church, officers of the society, entered the hall, which was one blaze of lights. The table occupied the room and formed a long square, great potted plants and garlands of decorations of the enclosure; ropes of smilax and chair ferns were gracefully arranged in front of each corner. Quaint Continental hats, white and blue cockades, held in the room and corridors were decorated with flags and at the banquet hall two beautiful flags were gracefully draped, one thirteen stars presented by Mr.

Brookheimer, of Wheeling, to the chapter, and the other a superb banner of buff and blue silk, the colors of the chapter, with the emblem exquisitely embroidered in the center. It is indeed a masterpiece of art and was manufactured in Lyons, France. The divination was most impressively pronounced by Rev. Plummer, after which very interesting papers were read by Colonel Henry Haymond on "Washington's First Expedition West of the Allegheny Mountains;" "The Tory," by Mr. Howard C. Richards; and "A Fighting Family," by John Bassel. A most delightful menu was served and later impromptu toasts were responded to by Governor White on "The State;" Rev. Plummer, on "The Church;" Owen S. McKinney, of Fairmont, on "The Press;" and Mr. Allen, of Wheeling, on "Better Americans." The banquet of this year given in Clarksburg will always be remembered at one of the most brilliant events in the history of the society. The officers elected for the coming year are President, Colonel Henry Haymond; Vice President, Dr. Rolla Camden, of Parkersburg; Secretary, Frank C. Cox, of Wheeling; Treasurer, Charles M. Hart, of Clarksburg; Registrar, Dr. Robert J. Reed, of Wheeling; Historian, Dr. Frank LeM. Hupp, of Wheeling.

Colonel Luther Haymond was at home to his many friends on Tuesday afternoon and evening, the day being the anniversary of his 95th birthday. In the evening a stringed orchestra was stationed in the hall and discoursed a program of delightful music. Colonel Haymond was the recipient of beautiful flowers, fruit and wine from his many friends and seemed much pleased over their kind remembrances and being the host of so many guests who had come to wish him many happy returns of the day. Later on delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Haymond to the many guests from a beautifully appointed table. One of the pleasing features of the evening was the arrival of little three-year-old Jack Lewis, great-grandson of Colonel Haymond, carrying a huge bunch of white carnations tied with red white and blue ribbon and presented it to his aged grandparent. The other great-grandchildren present were Eleanor Blackford, of Parkersburg, and Marston Lewis.

The marriage of Miss Louise Jarvis to Mr. Lilburn P. Currence was prettily solemnized in the bride's home on West Main street, Wednesday evening at 8:00 o'clock. The Rev. H. G. Richardson officiating. The bride had no attendants but a number of relatives and friends were present at the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Currence left on the 9:44 train for New York where they will spend their honeymoon trip and return to Clarksburg in about a fortnight. Mr. Currence has purchased a very pretty property on North Chestnut street and upon their return they will occupy their new home and go to housekeeping.

The marriage of Mr. Benjamin F.

Rumble, of this city, to Miss Jung, of Decatur, Alabama, was beautifully solemnized in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Allen, in Sherman street, on Wednesday evening, February 17, at 8 o'clock, the Rev. J. C. W. Willoughby officiating. After the ceremony delightful refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Rumble left on the northbound train for Clarksburg, where they will make their future home.

The leap year ball in the Elkbridge dancing academy Monday evening was an enjoyable affair.

The reception given by the faculty and pupils of the Elliott Commercial School in their rooms in the Lowndes building, Thursday evening, was largely attended and a highly enjoyable affair. Many responded to the invitations to be present, which were sent out to the patrons and friends of the institution and all of the rooms of the school were taxed to accommodate the guests.

The arrangements were under the direction of Mr. G. C. Finley, the principal, and a committee consisting of Miss Kathryn Blair, Miss Florence Hale, Miss Rose Smith, Mr. Willie Morgan and Mr. K. V. Reger.

Games and other social diversions were enjoyed during the evening. At a seasonable hour the company repaired to one of the school rooms which had been reserved as a dining room, and partook of delicious refreshments. The evening was very enjoyably spent and the faculty and the pupils of the school were the recipients of many congratulations from their guests for the success of the affair.

Tendency of the Times.

The tendency of medical science is toward preventative measures. The best thought of the world is being given to the subject. It is easier and better to prevent than to cure. It has been fully demonstrated that pneumonia, one of the most dangerous diseases that medical men have to contend with, can be prevented by the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of influenza (grip), and it has been observed that this remedy counteracts any tendency of these diseases toward pneumonia. This has been fully proven in many thousands of cases in which this remedy has been used during the great prevalence of colds and grip in recent years, and can be relied upon with implicit confidence. Pneumonia often results from a slight cold when no danger is apprehended until it is suddenly discovered that there is fever and difficulty in breathing and pains in the chest, then it is announced that the patient has pneumonia. Be on the safe side and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the cold is contracted. It always cures. For sale by G. C. Stone, druggist.
